PRESIDENT'S REPORT

We have had some great rallies recently and hope to see more of you at rallies in the coming months. Thanks Shaun and Lorraine for an interesting rally at Nulkabar. It was well attended once again.

Welcome to our new member David Howard who we hope will join us at a rally shortly and please make him welcome.

Helen received a thank you from Ann and Tony thanking the people who attended their farm for the donation of over $175. It has been donated to Gilgandra Sub Branch and Legacy.

NULKABA RALLY

Wednesday started well, the sun was shining, the birds were singing and everybody got to Nulkaba before the hosts.

In attendance were Paul and Helen Anderson, Ian and Chris Bailey, Greg and Judy Cavanagh, David and Liane Dijan, Ray and Lorraine Gardener, Neville and Joy Henderson, Peter and Wynette Lowe, Mick and Lyn Robinson and Shaun Bowers and Lorraine Barrett (hosts).

Afternoon tea was high tea thanks to Judy and Greg. We all said a HAPPY BIRTHDAY to Neville and had a good time.

Thursday, another perfect day with the birds singing and the sun was shining, Frank and Chris Peterson arrived in time to join us for lunch at Wollombi Tavern. Everyone enjoyed lunch in the sunshine with a shot of Dr. Jurds Jungle Juice as a bonus. For those willing to walk up the hill, ice cream was calling. A quick look through a very expensive antiques store then roll on home. Some did a quick detour to the wineries.

Friday. The day started perfect. The sun was shining, the birds were singing and Frank and Chris had a Fantastic balloon flight. Then around 12 the temperature dropped and the rain started. Paul and Ian saved the day by starting the pizza oven about 4 and everyone was cooking by 5.30pm. With no burnt pizzas the night was a success.

Saturday. The birds were singing, the sun was shining and with a do as you wish day, people were all over the place.

Sunday. The sun was, Oh you get the picture. Morning tea in the sunshine, from there straight to Cessnock Leagues Club (Home of the Goannas) for a long lunch then the Jayco club managed to have more people in Big W than the locals.

Monday. Another free day with sunshine and birds. Today we said good bye to Mick and Lyn and a HAPPY BIRTHDAY to Wyn.

Tuesday. Today we saw the arrival of Robin and Dorothy Wells and Colin and Vinnie Every. They had decided to join us on the tag-a-long and Chris and Ian headed home. Our last night had us doing a Pizza night again and the Park threw in 3 bottles of wine to make the night better. Thank you to Paul for warming up the pizza oven and cooking for everyone and to Ray and Liane for starting and maintaining the outside fire.

Wednesday morning was the start of our tagalong with lots of adventures ahead of us.

There has been some interest in obtaining another shirt for our Club. The one below is dark blue and white. These could be used for our rallies and the white ones we have, be kept for AGM or representing our club at State or National rallies. The new one is not compulsory but it is a very nice shirt.

If anyone is interested please send Name, size and if you want your name embroidered on the shirt, to Joy and she will forward on to Terry and do a bulk order. They can be ordered individually, but I thought easier if the first one was a bulk order.

Cost the same as the white ones $30 or $35 embroidered name
